

CURRICULUM VITAE

NAME: David C. Treadway, Ph.D.

ADDRESS: 228 Boston Post Road
Weston, MA 02493

TEL: (781) 899-3601

FAX: (781) 736-9120

E-MAIL: DTCROW@aol.com

DOB: June 8, 1945

EDUCATION: University of Pennsylvania, B.A. 1968
University of Pennsylvania, M.Ed. 1970
Union Graduate School, Ph.D. 1979

PRIVATE

PRACTICE: Family and Couple therapy since 1977

PROFESSIONAL

APPOINTMENTS: Director, Treadway Training Institute 1999
Co-Director, Extern Family Therapy Training Program at the Institute of Newton, Newton, MA 1978 - 1990
Philadelphia Child Guidance Clinic and The Eagleville Hospital in Pennsylvania through the 1970's

AUTHOR:

Books

Intimacy, Change, And Other Therapeutic Mysteries: Stories of Clinicians and Clients
Guilford, August 2004

Dead Reckoning: A Therapist Confronts His Own Grief, Basic Books, June 1996

Before It's Too Late: Working with Substance Abuse in the Family, W.W. Norton, January 1989

Articles

"How Involved is Too Involved?" Psychotherapy Networker 1999

"Riding Out The Storm" Family Therapy Network 1998

"Miniature Roses" Family Therapy Networker 1994

"In a World of Their Own" Family Therapy
Networker 1992

"Walking the Tightrope" Family Therapy
Networker 1988

Monthly columnist for the "Focus on the Family
Journal" 1988

"The Ties That Bind" Family Therapy Networker,
1987

"In the Eye of the Beholder" Family Therapy
Networker 1986

"It Will Never Happen to My Kids: Family Therapy with an ACOA Parent" Focus on the Family, 1986

"Who's on First? Mapping the Terrain for Family Systems Therapy" Focus on the Family, 1985

"Learning Their Dance, Changing Some Steps"
Chapter in the Casebook of Marital Therapy,
Guilford Press 1985 and reprinted in the Family
Therapy Networker

Workshop presentor and Family Therapy Trainer on substance abuse and family therapy issues for the past twenty years. The following is a sample of workshops presented on various topics throughout the years in 48 states as well as Canada and Europe.

Catching the Next Wave: Therapists at Mid-Life
It's All In The Family: Working well with Multi-Challenged
Families
Grace Happens: Intimacy, Grief and Spirituality in Everyday Life
The Heart of Loving: Pathways to Intimacy When There's Too Little Time and Too Much to Do
Pathways to Intimacy: Sexuality, Intimacy and Gender
Issues in Couples Treatment
Keeping the Spark Alive: Professional Burnout and Ways of Revitalizing and Renewing One's Therapeutic Practice
Before It's Too Late: Working with Substance Abuse in the Family
Good Grief: Addressing the Underlying Grief in the Everyday Lives of Our Clients and Ourselves
Holding on For Dear Life: Suicidality and a Model for
How to Treat the Survivors of a Suicide
The Crisis of Change: Helping Parents and Children
Handle the Trauma of a Separation, Divorce and Remarriage

Relapse and Family Dynamics
Couple Therapy and Substance Abuse
Intimacy and Substance Abuse
Integrating Addictions & Family Systems Models
Dual Diagnosis & Adolescent Substance Abuse
Family Treatment of Adult Children of Alcoholics
Safe Intimacy: Working with ACOA Couples
Substance Abuse Issues in the Work Place

MEMBERSHIPS: American Family Therapy Association - Clinical Member

American Association of Marriage and Family Therapy - Clinical Member

Family Drug and Alcohol Abuse Quarterly - former Board Member

Harvard Family Health Newsletter- former Board Member

Weston Drug and Alcohol Abuse Advisory Commission - former Board Member

The Samaritans A suicide prevention organization - former Board Member

Massachusetts Commission on Children and Youth - former Board Member

AWARDS

Psychotherapy Networker Award Winner for one of their best ten pieces in their 25 year history (2002)

TELEVISION GUEST APPEARANCES:

Good Morning America on Marriages Issues
20/20 on Child Abuse
People are Talking on Sibling Relationships
People are Talking on Agoraphobia
Late Night with Jane Whitney on Homosexual Parenting

Weekly Radio Show Host: Parenting Project on Family Issues
January/February 1989